Safely Back From Mexico

It was early in the morning of March 23 that 23 exhausted DLS staff and students found their bleary way through Vancouver's newly revamped airport. Their faces showed mixed emotions: fatigue, excitement and sadness. They were thrilled about the past nine-day mission trip to Tesopaco, in which they had completed what they had come there to do. Ceilings had been removed and new ones installed. Walls had come down and new ones had risen. English classes and VBS classes had been successful. However, there was also sadness. Good byes had been said to extremely dear new friends. But as the students excitedly rejoined parents, another emotion showed: HOPE that the students could participate in another mission trip really soon!
