Men's Ministries—CALLING Retreat—May 14th—16th

We are excited to share with you an upcoming 'CALLING' retreat for men from May 14th—16th at Apex Mountain Resort near Penticton. The 'Calling' retreat is a weekend adventure designed to help men find the life of their heart in God. We feel very privileged to have Gary Barkalow, who has worked for 'Focus on the Family—Christian Athletes' and was part of the 'Wild at Heart' team with John Eldredge. Gary has recently started his own ministry called 'The Noble Heart.' For more information and registration, please go to- www.men-of-hope.com.

Thank You from The Westminster Thunderbirds

The Westminster Thunderbirds want to thank everyone for their tremendous support of our Spring Banquet and especially want to thank Velma McKinnon and Veronica Stoiu, and William Soong for going the extra mile!

Mission School

Sundays from 6pm—8pm—Outreach

Westminster Church Security

Security of our church and worshippers has now become a very important concern. We would like to remind all parents and guardians to be vigilant about your kids during Sabbath services and in the afternoon. We need to be on the alert at all times.

Movements in Music

Grades 8 and 9 band classes will be visiting Douglas College for the Kiwanis Music Festival. There they will have the chance to listen to other high school bands, perform for adjudicators, and interact with noted musicians who will evaluate their work and give professional advice. In June, the grades 4 and 5 choir will take their concert on the road to Oliver and Osoyoos. For those who have already been privileged to hear these young musicians, you know that Okanagan audiences are in for a treat as the children raise their voices in heavenly praise

Thank You So Much

I so appreciated the great job you did on Sunday, April 25th, in clearing the junk from my home. Special thanks to Lloyd, Siegfried and Pastor Belonio. Annette Dronzek.
